The Era Almanack.

CONDUCTED BY EDWARD LEDGER.

CONTENTS.

	Page
Dramatic and Musical Calendar. By E. L. Blanchard	1
Plays Submitted for License from 1852 to 1865	16
Biographical Memoranda of Living Dramatic Authors	17
Various Entertainments Licensed by the Lord Chamberlain	29
The Playgoer's Portfolio. By E. L. Blanchard	30
History of Her Majesty's Theatre	34
First Appearances in London of Living Actors and Actresses	38
The Opera Season of 1867. By Henry Howe	44
List of Fires which have taken place in London Theatres	48
Theatres in Great Britain	50
List of Circuses, and where located at Christmas, 1867	51
Australian Theatres	51
American Theatres and Managers	52
Paris Theatres	53
Principal Provincial French Theatres and their Managers	53
Dramatic and Musical Chronology for 1867	54
New Pieces produced at the London Theatres in 1867	58
The Christmas Burlesques and Pantomimes	60
Dramatic Institutions	61
Theatrical, Musical, and Equestrian Obituary for 1867	61
Music Halls in Great Britain	63
Principal Portable Theatre Proprietors	65
London Music Hall Artistes	66
Some Gracious Memories. By Shirley Brooks	70
Actors of the Past. By Charles Mathews	71
A Good Example. By T. W. Robertson	72
Theatricals Far North. By Andrew Halliday	73
My First Play. By H. J. Byron	75
The Stroller's Funeral. By Watts Phillips	77
English Actresses who have been elevated to the Peerage and Baronetage	79
The Stage Fairy. By Stirling Coyne	80
A Rush of One	81
Introduction of the Pantomime into England	81
Crossing the Bridge	82
Macready in Mobile. By Dion Boucicault	83
Malibran's Death. MS. Reminiscences of C. L. Gruneisen	84

ADDRESS.

An Annual Register of Dramatic and Musical Events, presented in a convenient and comprehensive form, has been so long required by the Profession and the Public, that the conductor of "The Era Almanack" feels well assured of a kind reception being given to a work equally useful and interesting to both. A reference to the Table of Contents will best show the unprecedented mass of information comprised within these pages; and the extreme care exercised in the compilation has secured, he believes, the utmost possible accuracy. In succeeding years the Historical and Biographical Illustrations will be changed, and thus "The Era Almanack" will eventually form a complete Library of Theatrical Reference and Dramatic Dictionary of Dates, to which each year will impart increasing value. The conductor avails himself of this opportunity to acknowledge the valuable assistance rendered him by Mr. E. L. Blanchard, who has given the work continuous attention, and compiled the most complete Dramatic and Musical Calendar ever brought before the public.

All communications addressed "Almanack," "The Era" Office, 3, Catherine-street, Strand, will be received with thanks.

The Era Almanack.

CONDUCTED BY EDWARD LEDGER.

CONTENTS.

	Page
Dramatic and Musical Calendar. By E. L. Blanchard	1
Plays Submitted for License from 1852 to 1865	16
Biographical Memoranda of Living Dramatic Authors	17
Various Entertainments Licensed by the Lord Chamberlain	29
The Playgoer's Portfolio. By E. L. Blanchard	30
History of Her Majesty's Theatre	34
First Appearances in London of Living Actors and Actresses	38
The Opera Season of 1867. By Henry Howe	44
List of Fires which have taken place in London Theatres	48
Theatres in Great Britain	50
List of Circuses, and where located at Christmas, 1867	51
Australian Theatres	51
American Theatres and Managers	52
Paris Theatres	53
Principal Provincial French Theatres and their Managers	53
Dramatic and Musical Chronology for 1867	54
New Pieces produced at the London Theatres in 1867	58
The Christmas Burlesques and Pantomimes	60
Dramatic Institutions	61
Theatrical, Musical, and Equestrian Obituary for 1867	61
Music Halls in Great Britain	63
Principal Portable Theatre Proprietors	65
London Music Hall Artistes	66
Some Gracious Memories. By Shirley Brooks	70
Actors of the Past. By Charles Mathews	71
A Good Example. By T. W. Robertson	72
Theatricals Far North. By Andrew Halliday	73
My First Play. By H. J. Byron	75
The Stroller's Funeral. By Watts Phillips	77
English Actresses who have been elevated to the Peerage and Baronetage	79
The Stage Fairy. By Stirling Coyne	80
A Rush of One	81
Introduction of the Pantomime into England	81
Crossing the Bridge	82
Macready in Mobile. By Dion Boucicault	83
Malibran's Death. MS. Reminiscences of C. L. Gruneisen	84

ADDRESS.

An Annual Register of Dramatic and Musical Events, presented in a convenient and comprehensive form, has been so long required by the Profession and the Public, that the conductor of "The Era Almanack" feels well assured of a kind reception being given to a work equally useful and interesting to both. A reference to the Table of Contents will best show the unprecedented mass of information comprised within these pages; and the extreme care exercised in the compilation has secured, he believes, the utmost possible accuracy. In succeeding years the Historical and Biographical Illustrations will be changed, and thus "The Era Almanack" will eventually form a complete Library of Theatrical Reference and Dramatic Dictionary of Dates, to which each year will impart increasing value. The conductor avails himself of this opportunity to acknowledge the valuable assistance rendered him by Mr. E. L. Blanchard, who has given the work continuous attention, and compiled the most complete Dramatic and Musical Calendar ever brought before the public.

All communications addressed "Almanack," "The Era" Office, 3, Catherine-street, Strand, will be received with thanks.